

THE NORFOLK WEEKLY NEWS.

NORFOLK, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, AUGUST 3, 1899.

LOYAL TO MCKINLEY.

Endorsed in Peace and War by Iowa Republicans.

STATE OFFICIALS RENOMINATED.

All the Men on the Ticket Present Incumbents Except John C. Sherwin of Mason City Unanimously Chosen for Supreme Judge on the Fourth Ballot.

DES MOINES, Aug. 3.—The Republican state convention nominated the following ticket:

Governor—Leslie M. Shaw of Denison, Lieutenant Governor—J. C. Milliman of Logan.

Superintendent of Public Instruction—R. C. Barrett of Osage.

Railroad Commissioner—E. A. Dawson of Waverly.

Supreme Judge—John C. Sherwin of Mason City.

The first four nominees are the present incumbents, and were named by acclamation. Judge Sherwin was nominated on the fourth ballot. The convention met in the new Auditorium at 11 a. m. yesterday and listened to the address of Charles E. Pickett of Waterloo. The hall was packed with some 2,500 delegates and visitors, and Chairman Pickett's address was warmly applauded, particularly his reference to the administration and its policy of expansion. After the appointment of the working committees, the convention adjourned until 2 p. m.

In the afternoon the convention listened to an address by Former Congressman George W. Curtis, permanent chairman. The first nomination was for governor and the chairman recognized Congressman Smith McPherson, who said: "I move that Leslie M. Shaw be the nominee for governor, that it be made by acclamation and by a rising vote." There were scores of seconds from all over the house and the convention rose en masse and cheered loud and long for Governor Shaw.

Governor Shaw was presented to the convention and made a stirring speech, eulogizing President McKinley, the Republican party and Iowa's delegation to congress.

Congressman W. P. Hepburn presented the name of J. C. Milliman for lieutenant governor and moved that his nomination be made by acclamation, which was carried, with another demonstration. The balloting for nominee for judge of the supreme court then began.

Four Ballots for Judge.

The first ballot gave Robinson 316½ votes; Sherwin, 292; Burnham, 238½; Fee, 216½; Sloan, 189½; Giffen, 52; no choice. The second ballot resulted in 327 votes for Sherwin, 346½ for Robinson, 182½ for Burnham, 206 for Fee, 163 for Sloan, 2 for Giffen. The third ballot stood: Robinson, 335½; Sherwin, 491; Burnham, 132½; Fee, 176; Sloan, 99; Giffen, 31. The fourth ballot showed a landslide for Sherwin and at its close his nomination was made unanimous. Superintendent of Public Instruction Barrett and Railroad Commissioner Dawson were then nominated by acclamation. Following the adoption of the resolutions the convention adjourned.

The resolutions commend the action of the Iowa delegation for its support of protection, the tariff, the gold standard and its faithful support of President McKinley in his policy in peace and war, and endorse the prospective election of David B. Henderson as speaker of the house of representatives. The money plank in the Iowa Republican platform of 1898 is readopted.

The resolutions also declare industry and commerce should be left free to proceed according to natural laws, but when business aggregations, known as trusts, prove hurtful to the people they must be restrained, and if need be abolished by law.

A concluding paragraph in the resolutions says: "We admire the courage and skill of our officers, and glory in the heroism and constancy of our soldier boys in the army and navy. Nothing of support or sympathy or moral or material aid and comfort will we ever withhold from them."

VICTIMIZED IN BELGIUM.

Congressman Lovering's Pocket Picked of Thousands by Two Men.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 3.—William C. Lovering, member of the United States house of representatives from Massachusetts, was robbed Saturday last while on his way from Ostend to this city. While in the station at Ostend, he was jostled by two men, but took little notice of the occurrence at the time. On arriving in this city, however, he discovered his pocketbook, together with $13,000, valuable papers and notes for $25 sterling, had disappeared. Mr. Lovering notified the authorities and the matter was placed in the hands of the police.

Terrible Fight With a Bull.

FORT DODGE, Ia., Aug. 3.—John Dirk, a farmer living near Pomeroy, met a horrible death yesterday. Mr. Dirk was attacked in the pasture by a maddened bull. His wife ran to his assistance and the bull knocked both down. She managed to escape and summoned a neighbor, who fired two charges from a shotgun into the animal, driving it away. Dirk's body was trampled into an almost unrecognizable mass. Mrs. Dirk had two ribs crushed.

TWENTY DAYS AT FRISCO.

The Nebraska Regiment Is to Muster Out by Aug. 23.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—The weather at the Presidio is fine beyond all expectation and the health of the Nebraskans continues good and there are no serious cases in the hospital. General Shafter has complimented the regiment for the rapidity and precision with which the payrolls are made out.

Last night Corporal Frank H. Johnson of company M received the following telegram from Plattsmouth:

Will you accept nomination for sheriff on Republican ticket. Your father consents. Answer my expense.

H. N. DOVEY.

Johnson wired back as follows:

Thanks for the honor. Have no grasp of the situation. Consult father. What he says goes. JOHNSON.

Lieutenant Phil W. Russell, who served on the staff of General Otis at Manila, has received a message with the offer of a commission to return to Manila. He is an Omaha boy, a university graduate and enlisted in company D last year as a private. Aug. 23 has been set as the date for the muster-out of the regiment.

Today the regiment left camp to meet the Tenth Pennsylvania, which disembarked from the Senator. After escorting the Keystone boys to camp the Nebraskans entertained them at dinner.

MULFORD WOULD GO AGAIN.

The Nebraskan's Colonel Willing to Raise Another Regiment.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The dissatisfaction alleged to exist in the First Nebraska over the conduct of the war is not borne out by the facts. Colonel Mulford has assured the war department that he can raise a regiment for service in the Philippines and expresses a hearty desire to return to the scene of his and the First Nebraska's triumphs. It is stated that before leaving Manila he was offered a lieutenant colonelcy in Bell's regiment by General Otis, but declined on the ground that Nebraska deserved higher recognition.

Colonel Mulford desires to go back to Luzon and efforts will undoubtedly be made to meet his wishes, although how this is to be done will be a problem for the war department to decide. It is now believed that Colonel Mulford will decline the captaincy in the Thirty-second infantry to which he was appointed in view of his strong endorsement from General Otis, Hale and McArthur.

Colonel Hawkins' Body on Shore.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—The docking of the transport Senator yesterday was unaccompanied by the blowing of steam sirens and the ringing of bells. Thousands of people thronged the docks to witness the landing of the vessel which had borne the Tenth Pennsylvania from the Philippines. Later in the day a detachment of soldiers carried the casket containing the body of Colonel Hawkins to an awaiting hearse. A guard will accompany it east. Today the Pennsylvania boys will be given a chance to stretch their legs in the city.

HONORS SHOWN ALGER.

Detroit Receives the Ex-Secretary With an Ovation.

ITS RECIPIENT MOVED TO TEARS.

Crowds Shouted "Alger's All Right" and There Was No Dissenting Voice—In His Speech the General Declared He Had No Grievance—Fingree Speaks Hotly.

DETROIT, Aug. 3.—Whatever may have been the personal feelings of the late secretary of war, General Russell A. Alger, concerning recent incidents of his official career, all sentiments save those of genuine happiness were very evidently banished yesterday afternoon and evening by the magnificent welcome tendered him by the people of his own city and state. From 4 o'clock, when the welcoming committee crowded into his private car upon its arrival at Toledo, until 9 o'clock, when the general ceased grasping outstretched hands, the scene was a constant, spontaneous ovation. Smiles and tears repeatedly struggled for the mastery over the secretary's bronzed countenance as he gazed into the eager faces of the multitudes who loudly and convincingly insisted that "Alger's all right," and no dissenting voice was heard.

Darkness fell during the speeches from the reviewing stand in front of the city hall, giving opportunity for throwing a searchlight upon the features of General Alger, drawn in crayon on a canvass 16 feet square, hung from the city hall front and surrounded by patriotic decorations. A great crush at the indoor reception was the final feature.

The special train which met General Alger and party at Toledo consisted of six coaches. It carried 500 members of the reception committee. When the Pennsylvania train arrived the general's car was besieged by friends. General Alger was escorted through the reception train and greeted by all. Headed by about 300 bicyclists, over 1,000 marchers escorted General Alger from the Michigan Central station by a circuitous course, leading past the general's home to the reviewing stand. Fairbanks post carried two great banners, stretching half across the street, which declared "There is only one Alger."

Mayor Maybury, after calling to order, said: "General Alger, I should despair, sir, of being able to voice the heartiness of this welcome, were it not already shown in this vast concourse, through which you have passed. It will go forth to the world, sir, that where you are best known, there you are best beloved and best appreciated. It will go forth to the world, sir, a due notice that the standard of high character, built up by patience and perseverance, honesty and uprightness cannot be thrown down by slander."

Governor Fingree in his speech, made on behalf of the state, made some pointed references to incidents leading to Alger's home-coming, and fired some characteristic shots at the newspapers, which, he asserted, were largely responsible. The governor said that Alger's best service for his country was in his efficient management of the war department. Said he:

"The people of Michigan will remember the indignity to which the state has been subjected. In time they will come to know who is responsible for it. I think they already see that politics makes cowards of some men, in both high and low positions. They will in time despise the official, no matter how exalted his position, who truckled to the newspapers or who considered money or influence in any form.

"I have come to believe that the institution most dangerous to our form of government is the newspaper. Its boasted liberality is rather license. It has no scruple and no conscience. There are, of course, exceptions, but I speak of the press as a whole. Because you, General Alger, would not bow to them and conduct the war department in the interests of the combines, the army contractors and the commercial interests which control the newspapers, you became a marked man."

"Home Without a Grievance." General Alger responding, said: "I can command no language to express my gratitude to you for this royal welcome to my home. I am glad from the bottom of my heart to be released from official care and to again enter the old home and live among the people of Michigan.

"Since I went away, two and a half years ago, as you know, the country has passed through a terrific struggle. The office of which I was the head was taxed to the utmost of every man's strength who occupied any position in it. I gave my best thought and honest effort and did everything I could to carry out my part of that great work. What has been done is a matter of record, and I am perfectly willing to rest the case with my countrymen. Every transaction, every order and everything that was done in conducting that war is a matter of record and the people have a right to have that record searched. And now, my fellow citizens, I come home without a grievance. During that struggle and while that great work was upon me I can truthfully say that I had from the president all the support that he could give."

The closing scene was a reception in the city hall corridor. Mrs. Alger and a score of other ladies, with several of the general's relatives, viewed the scene from a canopied decorated platform built into the main stairway, and thousands pushed past and grasped General Alger's hand.

Gotham's Legislative Body Subpoenaed by the Mazet Investigators.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The most interesting thing developed yesterday in connection with the investigating committee was the fact that every member of the municipal council has been subpoenaed today to determine why the present city legislative body should not be abolished. A member of the staff for Mr. Moss, counsel for the committee, attended the meeting in the municipal assembly yesterday and served the subpoenas. With each subpoena was a letter from Counsel Moss, saying:

"You will be subpoenaed to appear before this committee at 11 a. m. Thursday and will be treated fairly and courteously. The assembly will be urged to convene and legislate against the municipal assembly and I desire that your side of the controversy shall be correctly presented."

PLAGUE UNDER CHECK.

Four New Cases but No Deaths at Hampton.

PESTILENCE WILL BE PUT DOWN.

Lists of Furloughed Members of the Home Being Prepared to Enable Localities to Detain Such Members a Reasonable Time—Fort Monroe Garrison Evacuates.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Advices received by Surgeon General Wyman from Hampton show that the only change in the yellow fever situation is the addition of four suspected cases to those already in existence. These have been sent from the camp to the hospital. This information and the additional statement that there has not been a death since Tuesday night and that everything with reference to the disease is more than favorable was received from Governor P. T. Woodfin of the Soldiers' home. He also declared he is quite sure the pestilence will be stamped out.

From Dr. White, who has general charge of affairs at Hampton, but who remains away from the institution, word came that the situation is unchanged. Governor Woodfin has prepared a list of all members of the home who have been furloughed since July 22, at the same time giving their destination. This will be telegraphed to Surgeon General Wyman and will be spread broadcast through the press, thus enabling localities where the inmates may now be to detain them for a reasonable length of time.

Dr. Wyman has sent dispatches to the health commission of Baltimore and the president of the board of health of Richmond, asking them what measures are being taken regarding refugees from the home at Hampton or the neighboring town of Phoebus. The doctor thinks it is of the most importance that such persons should be kept under close observation for ten days following their departure, particularly those who stopped over one night in either place.

The removal of troops from Fort Monroe and the officers and their families will begin today, a passenger steamer is scheduled to leave this afternoon for Cape Charles. A barge with cars is expected to go to the reservation tomorrow to take the baggage and equipment of the troops.

A dispatch from Dr. Wasdin says a house inspection of Phoebus discloses nothing. The dispatch adds: "Suspicious case of last night verified. No new cases at the home today. One desperate." Dr. Wasdin will start today to canvass 1,500 of the inmates, then to disinfect the rookeries (presumably those at Phoebus.)

OMAHA, Aug. 3.—General Manager Holdrege of the Burlington says: "We have no plans for an extension to Ogden and the story that such a movement is on foot is manufactured out of whole cloth.
